

Констатирующая контрольная работа (ККР)
по английскому языку 3 модуль

Класс: 10.1

Максимальный балл за работу: 56 баллов

Шкала перевода в 5-балльную отметку

Количество баллов	Отметка
0-29	2
30-39	3
40-49	4
50-56	5

- I had the ... opportunity to go to Paris and study.
a) Intriguing b) package c) travel
- Being on a fairly ... budget , we opted for five nights in a three-star hotel In Paris.
a) Rough b) high c) tight
- There wasn't much in the carriage to ... the writers attention.
a) Cherish b) grab c) take
- If you eat too much, you will ... weight.
a) Cramp b) accelerate c) gain
- I only eat ... food when I am with my friends somewhere in the supermarket.
a) Packed b) junk c) hush
- I've never been keen ... science fiction.
a) On b) for c) about
- Mike Maxwell at a shelter for the homeless.
a) Negotiates b) elaborates c) volunteers
- We spent the entire day around the zoo.
a) Wandering b) Spotted c) floating
- I was so surprised by the news that I ... into tears of joy.
a) Burnt b) brought c) burst
- I find my sister's mood ... very annoying; you never know when she is going to lose her temper.
a) Swings b) snacks c)spots
- It took me a long time to come to ... with the fact that my girlfriend no longer loved me.
a) agreements b) terms c) turns
- I must make a (an) ... to see my bank manager.
a) Meeting b) cooperation c) appointment
- He ... a promise to study harder.
a) Made b) did c) gave
- It's only a slight sprain so you'll soon get ... it. Your wrist will be OK in to days.
a) Over b) about c) round
- Eating food that is ... in calories will help you to stay slim.
a) Less b) small c) low

16. By making simple lifestyle changes you can ... your lifespan.
a) Improve b) enlarge c) increase
17. Now he has risen a little on the he has more responsibility.
a) Personal basis b) career ladder c) job security
18. They collected money to provide aid ... the homeless.
a) To b) for c) of
19. Since the 16th century, people have been coming from miles around to ... at this medieval festival.
a) Cope b) explore c) marvel
20. He ... at me angrily and I was afraid.
a) Peeped b) stared c) gazed
21. The park serves as a for a wide variety of species.
a) Nature reserves b) rocky landscape c) wildlife habitat
22. WWF ... with other organisations to protect animals.
a) Conserves b) contributes c) collaborates
23. 6. Consumers should be ... of possible threats to the environment from many products.
a) familiar b) concerned c) aware
24. 7. The fine they gave him was minimal. It was more or less a ... on the wrist.
a) sign b) slap c) slash
25. 8. Because animals can't defend themselves, it's important that we ... them.
a) stand for b) let off c) stand up for
26. Chris volcano surfing every weekend.
A goes B is going C has gone
27. The group down the slope when the avalanche occurred.
A skied B was skiing C had skied
28. The news by the time she turned on the TV.
A has already started B already started C had already started
29. I don't mind second hand items.
A to buy B buy C buying
30. By this time next month they will building the new mall.
A is finishing B have finished C have been finishing
31. Mary refuses products that can't be recycled.
A purchasing B to purchase C purchase
32. Jill avoids on Saturdays because of the crowds.
A shopping B to shop C shop
33. I'd prefer and look around for the best price.
A waiting B wait C to wait
34. If I won a lot of money, I donate some to charity.
A will B would have C would
35. I wish I in the charity race, but I was busy.
A ran B had run C would run
36. If Joe had left earlier, he the bus.
A won't miss B wouldn't miss C wouldn't have missed
37. He come to the clean up day, he is working.
A mustn't B doesn't have to C can't
38. People start forest fires should be put in prison.
A that B whose C which

39. Roswell by thousands of tourists each year.
A was visited B has been visited C is visited
40. The alien photographs examined by experts now.
A are B were C are being
41. Don't forget to book the tickets,?
A do you B will you C could you
42. Let me introduce; I'm Bill Evans.
A yourself B himself C myself
43. Jack , ... father is a doctor, joined a conservation group.
A who B which C whose
44. I pass my driving test; I plan to buy a car.
A Until B By the time C As soon as
45. Jill told Fiona that she the video clip.
A has seen B had seen C was seeing
46. He will go on holiday in the summer he graduates from university.
A after B since C until
47. Paula behaves she's better than everyone else.
A so that B as if C since
48. Jenny the oil changed in her car right now.
A has B has had C is having
49. Martin is having his beard by the barber.
A trims B trim C trimmed
50. Mary her hair dyed tomorrow.
A will have B has C had

- 1 a) RNE Read the article about a woman's experience on a cooking holiday in South East Asia. Choose the correct parts of sentences A-G to complete gaps 1-6. There is one extra part of a sentence you do not need to use.

- | | |
|--|---|
| A but there was far too much liquid | D who would be in charge of the course |
| B but it certainly didn't feel like it at the time | E which filled the kitchen and made our mouths water |
| C which was one of the most exciting things about the entire trip | F when it was time for a new experience |
| | G which we purchased for use in the lesson |

- b) Translate the first two paragraphs of the text into Russian.

Exotic cooking

I have loved cooking ever since I was a young girl, and so I was very excited when, last year, my husband treated me to a cooking holiday in Thailand.

We flew out to Bangkok in early July, ready to sample the delights Thailand had to offer. After a few hours spent recovering from the journey, we were invited to meet the chef 1. He tried to give us an introduction, but it was hard to concentrate on what he was saying as a team of waiters kept bringing us more Thai specialities to try. Every dish was full of fresh, exotic flavours, especially to an English palate used to a very different cuisine. As we savoured the food, the chef told us that the following day we would make an early start in order to visit the local food markets.

Promptly at 7am the following morning, we met and headed off. I was amazed at the markets. There were tiny, red and green chillies in profusion 2. We then went in search of more seasonings. As we followed the chef among the stalls, we were met with a heady mix of aromas. I was familiar with things like garlic and coriander as I had used them in England, but others were native to Thailand and I was eager to start cooking with these novel ingredients.

On our return, we went straight to the kitchen to begin our first lesson in Thai cooking. None of us were professionals, and every now and then you would hear some giggling as we tried to deal with the unfamiliar ingredients. After learning how to dice, chop and combine various herbs and spices, it was time to cook.

As the contents of the various pots and pans gently simmered, there was a delicious aroma 3.

At the end of the lesson, we put our completed dishes on a central table and the chef tasted each one, commenting on their flavour and texture. Apparently, mine had the right degree of spice in its flavour, 4. We took the constructive criticism in good spirits, sometimes laughing out loud at the politely-phrased comments. Finally, we all had the chance to try the dishes and, for a first attempt, our meals turned out pretty well.

Lessons continued in this manner until day four 5. The chef took us to a hotel in the mountains outside Bangkok. We visited the rice paddies which cover the slopes. It was fascinating to see rice growing, rather than in packets on supermarket shelves. That evening we made three different rice-based meals and learnt about the different types of rice used in Thai dishes.

After an exhausting day, we sat on the hotel terrace drinking delicious Thai tea with cinnamon and vanilla. It was then that our teacher decided to spring his surprise on us: on our last night back in Bangkok, we would be left to prepare our own Thai meal, to be served up to the guests of the hotel! He insisted that we were competent and, anyway, he would be on hand to help. Looking back now, it was a great idea, 6. The guests applauded our efforts, and we were proud to have rounded off a wonderful holiday in such fine style.

Критерии оценивания:

Каждый правильный ответ оценивается в один балл. Максимальный балл – 56.